

CYGNUS

workstations for healthcare

LC1000

When you need a cost effective mobile solution but don't want to jeopardize functionality or durability, the LC1000 is there to serve.

Feature Rich

The LC1000 hospital computer workstations offer convenient features such as the assisted height adjustment. This permits the user to position the keyboard at the perfect height for standing at the bedside or recording data while seated.

The LC1000 includes many standard features so you don't have to purchase extra options to get started.

LC1000

- A Compact work surface with raised drip edge.
- B Ergonomic design with assisted height adjustment.
- C 14 inches of vertical adjust, perfect for both standing or sitting.
- D Dual ball bearing wheels for smooth, long lasting usage.
- E Convenient foot pedal height adjustment.
- F Two locking casters.
- G Cage for power brick.
- H 4' to 10' coiled power cord & hook.
- I Optional
 - Security cable pass-through grommet.
 - Bar code scanner holder. (Optional)
 - AnchorPad laptop security. (Optional, not shown)
 - Mouse Holder. (Optional, not shown)
 - 1, 2 or 3 drawer system (Optional, not shown)

Weight: 43 lbs (Without Laptop)

Power Block Cage

Cord Hook